Joseph Fortin Appointed New 'Michaelman' Editor

OUTGOING MICHAELMAN EDITOR TOM LEAVITT (r) congratulates his successor Joe Fortin on being chosen to head the paper next year.

The first annual "MICHAELMAN" award banquet, held on Monday, May 7, at the Olde Board restaurant, was highlighted by the announcement of the appointment of Joseph Fortin as editor-in-chief for the forthcoming year. Four awards for outstanding contributions to the newspaper during the past year were also presented and all other staff appointments were announced.

BACKGROUND EXTENSIVE

Joe's background in newspaper work is an extensive one. At Mt. St. Michael Academy in the Bronx, New York, where he received his secondary education, Joe was a member of the staff of the school's newspaper, "The Tower," for three years. Here he worked under the watchful eye of the late Brother Kieran Martin, moderator, whom Joe feels was instrumental in the achievement of his present position. For it was under the guiding hand of Bro. Kieran that Joe received his solid foundation of experience in the newspaper field.

It is interesting to note that another member of "The Tower" staff under Bro. Kieran recently received

SMC Presents Five Degrees

Five Honorary Degrees will be presented by St. Michael's this year. The degrees are to be given to Bishop Robert Francis Joyce, John William McDevitt, Thomas Winn, Paul Smith and Margaret Fennelly.

BISHOP JOYCE

Bishop Joyce, who was consecrated October 28, 1954, presently serves as pastor of St. Peter's Parish in Rutland. A native of Proctor and a member of Phi Beta Kappa at the University of Vermont, Bishop Joyce studied six years in Montreal with the Sulpucians, two years at the Seminary of Philosophy and four years at the Grand Seminary of Theology. He received his degree of Licentiate in Theology at the latter seminary.

Ordained in 1923, he has held many positions since then. He served as an Army Chaplain in the Second World War and following his discharge in 1946 with the rank of Major, the future bishop was appointed pastor of St. Peter's in 1946. On July 8, 1954 he was elected as Tetular Bishop of Citium and appointed auxiliary to Most Rev. Edward F. Ryan, Bishop of Burlington.

McDEVITT, K of C DIRECTOR

John W. McDevitt is a resident of Walsen, Mass. He was born in Malden, Mass., and is a graduate of Immaculate Conception Elementary School and Boston College, where he

Juniors Edge Seniors For Interclass Crown

The 1955-1956 Interclass 'Victorious Knight' trophy will go to this year's Junior Class, it was announced today by Father Gerald Duford, Director of Interclass Activities, after he had made a final tabulation of the total scores of the four classes. The Juniors, in a last minute spurt, gathered a total of 230 points throughout the year to edge past the second-place Seniors with 195 points. The Sophomores were third with 168 points and the Freshmen were fourth with 140.

The last two events of the year spelled the difference in the race. The Juniors picked up 60 points in the Track and Field Day on Tuesday and 30 vital points on Thursday in the Interclass sailing. The Seniors, unable to match this winning pace, could pick up a total of only 15 points in these two events, five in the track meet and ten in the sailing.

The Juniors and Sophomores were tied for the most number of first-place finishes during the year with five each. However, the Sophomores took part in ten events while the Juniors were entered in only nine. The Juniors were first in sailing, track, basketball, tennis and football, while the second-year men led the field in snow sculpture, debating, skiing, plane modeling and riflery. The Seniors had their two firsts in dramatics and writing (poetry) and the Freshmen were in the lead in writing (fiction) and hockey.

FRESHMAN CLASS:

Football	3 place	10 pts.
Tennis	2d	5
Basketball	3d	20
Hockey	1st	20

Players Inc. Set Summer Schedule

St. Michael's College will once again present Players Inc. as resident company for a six week season, starting on July 10. This will be the sixth straight year of the partnership.

This year the emphasis will be on recent comedy. The first production will be, "Father of the Bride" and will close with "You can't Take It With You."

Many old-timers will return for this year's stay. There will be a new director, William Starrs, who succeeds William Graham.

The story of the Summer Theater goes back to 1947 when the college received a surplus theater from Fort Ethan Allen. In 1947 and 1948 the star system was tried and and found wanting. Six years ago Players Inc. came to Burlington for a winter performance. They liked the idea of using Austin Hall for a theater in the off-season and came here for the next summer. This was the start of the six year partnership.

Seniors Honor Dave Austin As "Mr. Michaelman" Of '56

David Austin, a pre-med student from Brattleboro, Vermont, was named "Mr. Michaleman" for 1956 at the annual Senior Banquet, held Tuesday evening, May 8 in college dining hall. Asked for his initial reaction on receiving the award, Austin could only say "Thanks, thanks a lot".

KENNEY: "5 & 10 CULTURE"

The guest speaker at the banquet, Thomas Kenney, Assistant to the President, warned the Seniors on avoiding the "easy way out, so common in our present five and dime culture". "When you leave St. Michael's you'll pass, not into a world of strife and storm, but into a world of easy indifference," Kenney warned. "St. Michael's has given you integrity; your mission is to project your integrity." The '50 alumnus named the present rock and roll rage as "indicative of quicksandish foundations of our culture. Because you'll live in the 'Man in the Grey Flannel Suit' atmosphere, you'll have to combat it by accepting responsibility, and volunteering for the extra job when the opportunity presents itself". Kenney, who had prefaced his speech by several well-received quips concerning faculty and administration members, received lengthy applause on ending his address.

OTHER SPEAKERS

Earlier in the evening Senior Class Prexy, Henry O'Connor presented a gift certificate for a record from his class to Rev. Gerard Duford, Dean of Men. When the Dean spoke he thanked the class for the gift and assured them that "I'll use the certificate to buy one of Richard Maltby's records."

Rev. Maurice U. Boucher, the class moderator also addressed the class shortly and after thanking them for "these very happy years", wished them all "Good luck and Godspeed".

AWARDS

Twenty student awards were given out during the evening. Steve O'Brien, Frank Keane, Bob DesRoches, Russ Gangi, Jack Lennon, Al Scaia and Bill Halloran were all given trophies by the class president for continuous and outstanding service to the class. O'Connor, in addressing his classmates said, "I know I'm speaking for everyone when I say that we're all better men

Freshmen Elect Canavan Prexy

On Tuesday, May 8 the Freshmen went to the polls a second time in an attempt to elect the president of next year's Sophomore Class. This time the results showed a victory for James Canavan over Terry O'Grady by a vote of 103-77.

The second election was called for by the election committee as a result of hotly contested first balloting held May 2. The result was then either a tie or a one vote margin with the decision held in sway by a questionable ballot. The committee therefore ruled a new contest be held a week later between Canavan and O'Grady to settle the issue.

In receiving word of the results, Canavan stated, "I am very pleased that I have been given the opportunity to head our class next year. The contest was very close and hard fought all the way but well worth the effort put into campaigning. I hope that I may fulfill the expectations of my classmates next year.

John Eaton Elected Next Year's Council President

The College Athletic Office today announced that the Director of Athletics, George 'Doc' Jacobs, will award sweaters and letters in recognition of excellence in various sport fields to 13 graduating seniors. It was also made known that the ten members of the college basketball team would received monogramed blazers this coming Sunday from Coach Jacobs.

WALTER BELLCOURT VEEP

Walter Bellcourt was then unanimously elected to the post of Vice-President with no opposition offered. Bob Donoghue will serve as Corresponding Secretary for the coming year and the new Recording Secretary is Junior Joe Lee. Paul Kane will handle the finances in the capacity of Treasurer.

Out-going President Henrik Bredenberg congratulated the new President and offered a few parting words to the new Council. He said that he feels that the Council can be a powerful tool in furthering the cause of a greater Saint Michael's. Eaton then expressed his thanks to the Council in behalf of himself and for all the new officers. As his first action in office, the new president called a special meeting of the Student Council to be held Friday evening to appoint the heads of permanent committees and to transact other business that can not be left until the fall.

Tribute To The Seniors

Calling to mind the thoughts of another year almost behind us, no better opportunity can be taken to view with deep satisfaction the outstanding accomplishments of the Class of 1956.

Strong in activity, pioneers of the new integration program, and all capable Michaelmen, it is only fitting to record the achievements associated with this class.

Although honors won't be doled out individually to every member of the group, we must acclaim the 56'ers collectively, as a precedent-setting array of scholars, athletes and leaders.

Throughout their four-year stay at the abode overlooking the Winooski, the graduates of '56 were instrumental in furthering the new academic program which has distinguished St. Michael's as one of the better-known small Liberal Arts Colleges in the East. Also, we can't overlook the fact that this class last year accumulated the highest number of points in the Interclass Activities Program and thereby was the first annual winner of the Victorious Knight trophy.

Beside their impressive and stimulating Junior Weekend, the Class rendered immeasurable service to the Student Council. With their four-year tour drawing to a close, many have successfully secured jobs with leading companies; already a third have been accepted to graduate schools and some have qualified for officers training schools with the various military services.

To the Class of 1956, a grateful tribute for your contributions and a sincere wish for success in the future.

In Appreciative Anticipation

With this, the last issue of The MICHAELMAN during the academic year, it might be well to express the added respect we now hold for those who have gone before us. Recalling the first few publications when our former Editor, Tom Leavitt, was usually perplexed about having enough copy for the ensuing issues, to the last few releases when the boss-man was living at ease, a special thought of recognition is in order for the excellent work performed by T.L. this year.

It is my hope to extend the work of Tom and his staff next year, and that my reign be as successful as was that of the fiery Chief of the past annum. Incidentally, I want to assure Mr. Leavitt, and the entire student body, that this paper will not become a scratch sheet for "Rock 'n Roll" critics, as my illustrious predecessor smilingly predicted on the occasion of my appointment to office.

To the new staff, a congratulatory note, and a hope that in some measure we can demonstrate our possibilities for improvement with new ideas during '56 - '57.

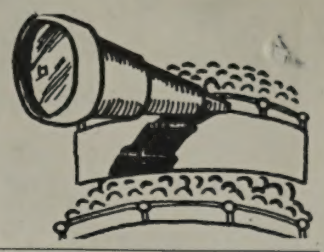
on second thot...



By R. T. Dumaine

To attribute to final examinations along the lines of melancholia which crease our seniors' faces would be to sadly misunderstand their situation.

The increased sobriety noticed in our fourth-year men springs from a source more metaphysical than final exams. Somber Senior faces are that way because of the harrowing distance between now and Graduation Day.

Declining the typical undergraduate recreation of tilting at the pub, the Seniors individually and as a group now sequester themselves in the solitude of their chambers, there to meditate or discuss the mournful consequences attendant upon their receiving a diploma. And the consequences are, indeed, harrowing.

It is not in the spirit of callous inspection, but rather with sincere sympathy

Dear Mr. Fortin:

There is a common and puzzling question that races through the heads of our AFROTC Detachment officers. This sounds like old stuff, but be patient for a moment please. Said question: "Why do basic cadets have the attitude of mind that they do against not only advanced ROTC, but the classes, drill, etc. ?"

It appears to me that first impressions mean a great deal. Also, the atmosphere (you could almost call it environment) in which the student finds himself, determines largely his reaction to it.

When a supposedly dignified and qualified officer assigned to a duty of instructing college courses, perches his foot on top of the desk and gives you a fine background of the lower part of our language within the first five minutes of class as well as implying or mentioning his desire to be elsewhere; that is the time when intellectual rebellion breeds. Such things as letting class out as a general practice fifteen minutes to a half hour early detracts from the respect and prestige of the course and the instructor.

Although we are blessed with a group of congenial and cooperative officers here at St. Michael's, with a little introspection they could answer to a fairly full extent, their own question.

Sincerely yours,

William P. Willig

Dear Dave,

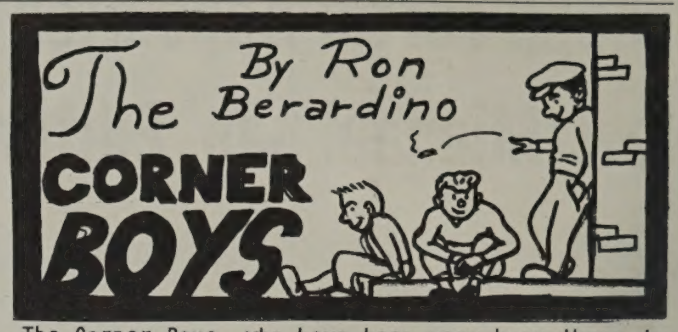
It was a great pleasure playing for St. Michael's last Saturday. Without a doubt yours was one of the most enthusiastic groups we've played for this year. It reflected in the work of the band for they played with with additional verve.

I must say the response to my band by the colleges has been little short of miraculous. Iowa State in Ames where we played this winter has already booked us back for October, and that really makes me feel good.

Again, Dave, thank you for your kind hospitality.

Sincere regards,

Dick Maltby



The Corner Boys, who have been very busy these days, were relaxing as is their wont, after a hard morning of two classes, in room 202.

A casual array of sneakers, coke bottles and cast-off clothes provided the background for the intellectual discourse of the day.

To the uninitiated, the talk of the Corner Boys might seem like an amazing amount of nothing; however, after three years on this campus, the fluidity, quaintness, and originality of all these dissertations have left an indelible imprint on most of the stalwarts of the upper class.

Samples: Gina L. vs. Diana D. vs. Marilyn M. or Dr. Citarella vs. Dr. Durick or Susan H. vs. Jennifer J.

Today the talk had drifted along with its accustomed bewildering rapidity, now and then settling on one point of interest, then another. Finally the Corner Boys started tossing the Junior Weekend around. Now.... when the Boys start discussing anything of great importance, a startling trasition seems to permeate the little smoke-filled room. The casual, bored counterance is replaced with an aggressive, steely-eyed demeanor. The friendly tete-a-tete becomes a vast battlefield,--the participants gird themselves for action joyfully--the Corner Boys are at work.

This particular imbroglio was started by the seemingly inoffensive remark - " Great weekend." Once again a word of advice.....when in the company of the Corner Boys, never make a positive statement because you are bound to be wrong. Either say " Some weekend" or " What a weekend", with an inflection of voice that can not be interpreted, but above all never say " Great weekend".

Like the roar of the swollen Winooski, the flood of voices filled the room. Expressions such as " ----------, Dagger," seemed to be the order of the day.

Long after the fog had lifted, the disjointed phrases so eloquently used or misused, came to a harmomious accord that this year's Weekend finally gave Saint Michael's the social prestige and initiative that it has so long been lacking.

The preparations for the weekend were long and laborious, and the finished product was the testimonial that Messrs Chiasson, Eaton and company had done a standout job. Aside from the one bad day of weather, Pleasure Island lived up to its expectations.

The selections of the Jazz and Dance bands were perfect. Wine (whoops) women and song were the orders of the day; and as Monday made her entrance to the Hilltop, manyaMichaelman with bleared eyes and benumbed body aroused himself for the final " push".

With the exceptions of Mr. Dowling, Mr. Allen and Mr. Night 'O' Rest, the concensus of the Island was to lengthen the weekend to a week. But, as the long, crooked finger of the Administration beckoned and the flattened billfolds regained their accustomed peaked look, the sun finally had to set.....You all remember the sun?

Ed. Note:

We regret to announce to the many Latimerian followers who advocated the further enjoyment of "Daze and Knights", that "The Corner Boys" has replaced the famed column this week and could very well be a likely successor come next year!

similar recognition. A co-worker with Joe, he was appointed editor of the Fordham "Ram" for next year.

ACTIVE AT ST. MICHAEL'S

Following his graduation, Joe immediately came to St. Michael's on a scholastic scholarship in September of 1954. At SMC, he has been on the Dean's List for two years, and was a member of the Sodality, Mission Crusade and "MICHAELMAN" during his Freshman year. He has served as president of the Mission Crusade during his Sophomore term, make-up editor for the "MICHAELMAN," and a Student Council representative.

In commenting on the appointment of the new editor, Thomas Leavitt, outgoing head, stated, "I have the fullest confidence that Joe will continue the rapid improvement that the "MICHAELMAN" underwent this year in the hands of the '55 - '56 staff. There will be a strong nucleus of staff members returning next year and these men, together with new talent, may well produce a publication that will become one of the best newspapers in New England."

When asked to comment himself, Fortin said, "I was greatly honored to receive this appointment as editor of "MICHAELMAN." I am looking forward to a successful year as I have the fullest confidence in the staff under me."

INAUGURATE AWARDS

The banquet, attended by 37 staff members, was held for the first time. Guests included Fr. Duford, Director of Student Activities; Mr. Roy Kirby of the George Little Press; Fr. Paulin and Mr. Donoghue, moderator.

This year awards were also given to the authors of the best feature story, best news story and best editorial as judged by the editorial board. A fourth award went to the member of the staff who had given the best general service throughout the year.

Winner of the best feature story award was Craig Tynan for his Enders Island essay which appeared in the March 17 issue. Robert Dumaine received the best news story award for his coverage of the Interclass play competition, which appeared December 3. The best editorial, as judged by the board, appeared October 8 on the controversial subject of library hours and was written by Thomas Leavitt. The general service award, for consistent, efficient contribution to the newspaper, was presented to Paul Kenney, Business Manager.

APPOINTMENTS ANNOUNCED

The evening was climaxed by the announcement of staff appointments for next year. The editorial board will be made up of George Latimer, Thomas Leavitt and Robert Wilk. News editor will be James Canavan and Peter Feary will serve as make-up editor.

Daniel O'Hear will hold the position of copy editor for the second year while James Breagy will head the sports staff. Business Manager will be John Steele and James Carroll was appointed Circulation Manager.

SECOND THOT

that we here disclose the mental anguish victimizing our Seniors.

The prospect of leaving, be it from home, the alma mater, or the penitentiary is always disquieting. Ties of friendship, firmly knotted over the passing years, must now be severed, and loans long due escape unpaid. Stomachs just growing immune to the food, and backbones finally mishapen enough to meet the requirements of the mattresses are denied the time in which to enjoy these hard won advantages.

Depressing as the thoughts of what must be forsaken are, the anticipation of what awaits the college graduate is even more cruel.

Enfeebled by years of guaranteed meals, working in a collapsed position, or at worse, sitting up, and an almost anarchistic freedom to regulate his time, the graduate-to-be finds little to savor in the prospects of the mental and physical taxation to be encountered in the ordinary processes of "earning a living." Of course, those students who suffered a perverted sense of social behavior and spent much time at the books find the transition less difficult.

For those souls who, in their college days, were bred upon the communal importance of "activities" the impending anonymity of post-graduate life is, indeed, a bitter pill for their indigestion. The separation from fame easily won within friendly walls hurts these, perhaps, more than separation from friends.

But then, we must all face, at one time or another, the yawning chasm of oblivion. Some, not graced with the bribe for a college diploma, enter it upon graduation from high-school. Others, granted a temporary stay of execution, are swallowed up signing A.B. after their names.

To be sure, oblivion is not the funeral state that this age, nourished upon movies, radios and newspapers, pictures it. The saints have blessed it more than the politicians have decried it. The darkness of obscurity is not fatal; it is the mediocrity that abounds there that is to be feared. Not the mediocrity of fortune, but the tepidity of spirit, the universal identity between individuals, that is the real grave which beckons.

The graduating class has for four years sought to so define themselves as to avoid this mortality. Each individual now is weighing his chances of success.

Campus Clubs Elect Leaders For '56-'57

On Friday evening the presidents of the various clubs on campus convened, and under the direction of Student Council President, Henrik Bredenburg, elected Student Council representatives. According to the recent amendment to the Student Council Constitution, one-third of the number of club presidents will have voting power on the Council while the remaining two-thirds will have a seat on the Council at their option. The club executives also elected Tom Johnson as their chairman and Paul Kane as their representative to the Finance Committee of the Student Council, according to the Constitutional by-laws.

THE RESULTS

At the present time, there are 15 recognized clubs on campus. Of this number the five club presidents who were elected to voting positions were: Ray Jacques, the 'Shield;' Tom Johnson, WSSE; Paul Kane, NFCCS; Bill Kreuter, Debating Club; and Dan McCarthy, Glee Club. The nominations were given with out opposition and a secret ballot was held in view of possible abstinence whereby a nominee might not have received the necessary majority. There was no need for re-vote as all candidates received an official majority.

Following the election of voting representatives, nominations were accepted for the position of chairman of the Organization of Club Presidents. The by-laws state that the chairman doesn't necessarily have to be one of the voting representatives, but at the termination of voting Tom Johnson, previously elected to a voting position, was selected to head the Presidents' Organization. Mr. Johnson thanked the members for their support and stated he would notify the organization of a future meeting.

The concluding act of the convention was the election of the Club Presidents' Representative to the Finance Committee of the Student Council. Three men were nominated, but the results saw Paul Kane, Senior Delegate of NFCCS, elected to the position.

CLUB PREXIES

As previously mentioned there are now fourteen recognized clubs on campus. The chief executives of these clubs are: Jim Moreau, Biology Club; Paul Bouffard, Chemistry Club; J. Paul Kane, Senior Delegate of the N.F.C.C.S.; Jim Maheu, Mission Crusade; John Yula, Outing Club; Bill Kreuter, Debating Club; Bob Wilk, Sodality; Joseph Fortin, "Michaelman"; Ray Jacques, "Shield"; George Little, "Lance"; Dan McCarthy, Glee Club; Gerry San Antonia, Sociology Club; Jack Smith, Knights & Knaves; and Tom Johnson of W.S.S.E. Two Clubs, the Politics and International Relations Club, have not held their elections as yet. These latter clubs are recognized, but do not have a seat or voice on the Student Council.

Dean Releases Course Changes

A few notable changes in academic regulations and in curriculum have been made in the school's Fifty-Second Annual Catalogue, it was emphasized by Fr. Gerald E. Dupont, S.S.E., Academic Dean.

The innovations in the bulletin regulations pertain primarily to class attendance and to academic standing.

The addition to the class attendance regulation reads: "A student may be forced to withdraw from a course and be given an FA for excessive absences." Attendance will be enforced more rigirously than in the past, it was pointed out.

Also, students failing one course and still maintaining an overall average of 70% will, regardless, be placed on the warning list with its consequences restriction.

Changes in the curriculum occur in the fields of philosophy, theology, humanities and mathematics.

Philosophy 202 will become a six-credit course; philosophy 302, a three-credit course; and, philosophy 402, a four-credit course. Humanities 102 will become philosophy 102 without much change in the content of the course.

Theology 202, a four-credit course, will be replaced by theology 204, (Sources of Theology), a two-credit course.

The mathematics program remains somewhat unsettled. Juniors will take 301 Intermediate Calculus (3), 303 Differential Equations (3), 403 Fundamentals of Analysis (3) and 405 Introduction to Mathematical Statistics (3). Seniors will take 403-405 and the Seminar 410.

AFROTC Review Features Awards

The Fifth Annual Air Force Review climaxing the year's program, was held on Sunday, May 13th at the St. Michael's Stadium at 2:30 P.M. Colonel Benjamin A. Karsokas from AFROTC Headquarters in Montgomery, Alabama headed the review team which included Lt. Col. George Abernathy and Lt. Col. Milton Campbell. This year's Review, dedicated to mother's of AFROTC cadets, was highlighted by the presentation of awards to outstanding cadets at SMC.

Mrs. Milton Narkewicz was chosen by Lt. Col. Donald J. Quigley as Cadet Mother of the year. Mrs. Narkewicz viewed the review with high ranking defense and civic officials. As guest of honor she was presented with a bouquet of roses.

TEN AWARDS PRESENTED

A total of ten different awards were presented to cadets who made outstanding performances in their assigned duties this year. The Air Force Association Medal awarded to the most outstanding Cadet Officer went to Cadet Col. Richard Narkewicz. Cadet Major Robert W. Wilson, who commanded the Squadron receiving the highest efficiency rating, received the American Legion Plaque and Medal.

The Chicago Tribune Awards went to Cadet Lt. Col. Francis Adams and Cadet Lt. Col. Gerald Ryan for outstanding performance as Group Commanders, and to Cadet Maj. Robert LeBlanc and Cadet Maj. Robert Burke for outstanding performance on the Cadet Wing Staff. The most outstanding Basic Course cadet, Cadet Capt. Albert Sasseville, received the Convair Award for 1956. Deputy Commander, Cadet Lt. Col. John Seigal was awarded the Military Order of the World Wars medal for making continuously outstanding contributions to the AFROTC.

Pre-Theos Build Shrine To Mary

Significantly, for the month of May, a shrine has been erected in honor of the Blessed Virgin Mary. The pre-theo students, under the direction of Father Lorenzo D'Agostino, constructed the beautiful shrine.

Designed by Father D'Agostino, the statue is situated on a cone shaped pedestal, which serves to focus the eyes on the Holy Mother. The blue leatherette background is ornamented by a sunburst in mother of pearl and is flanked by two panels of the same material. Cotton blanketing placed behind the blue background gives an impression of body and softness. Two tall white tapers with flickering flames are a remembrance to the devotional flame to Mary, which should always burn within us.

The student body is reminded that the shrine is open for public adoration for the remainder of the academic year. All are encouraged to patronize the shrine during the month of Our Mother. A dual purpose is suggested that during exam time that Mary be petitioned for inspiration and aid, to help complete a successful school year.

This masterpiece is exhibited in Senior Hall and was made possible through the the joint efforts of Father D'Agostino and the future members of the Society of Saint Edmund.

THIS SHRINE TO MARY was built by residents of Senior Hall in honor of May, the month dedicated to Our Blessed Mother.

Pre-Registration Expires Saturday

Pre-registration time has once more come to the SMC Campus. The Registrar's Office has distributed copies of the procedure which must be followed during the May 11 through May 19 period.

Mr. Garrett, the Registrar, said that a fine will be charged to all students who fail to pre-register in the given time. The following rules are in effect for those who have registered and those who as yet have not.

1. Make an Appointment with your advisor.
2. Prior to an appointment hour, go to the Treasurer's Office. There you will be provided with a pre-registration sheet, enrollment card, Dean of Men's and Treasurer's cards.
3. After leaving the Treasurer's office, go to the Dean of Men's office, he will enter the room assignment on your enrollment card.
4. Pre-register with your advisor at your appointed hour.

SPECIAL NOTES

1. Students not planning to return are reminded that to obtain refund of the $25 guarantee deposit, notice in writing must be given the Treasurer at this time. Refunds will be mailed home about the middle of June.
2. All students liable to Selective Service Board action should complete three copies of SSS 109 form before leaving for home and leave them with the Registrar.
3. Advisory lists are posted outside of the Academic Dean's office.

Seminarians Hold Banquet

On Wednesday, May 9, the Third Annual Seminarians' Banquet was held at the Lincoln Inn in Essex Junction. The Very Rev. Francis E. Moriarty, S.S.E., president of St. Michael's, was the principal speaker.

The banquet, which was inaugurated three years ago, is for the purpose of honoring the seminarians who are leaving St. Michael's to further their studies either at St. Edmund's Novitiate or at diocesan semanaries. In future years it will also serve as an annual gathering for the priests who attended St. Michael's as semanarians.

The Rev. Dr. Lorenzo D'Agostino, S.S.E., director of St. Edmund's Minor Seminary, also addressed the group. His discourse, entitled "My Fourteen PATIENCE', was well received.

Following this, Russ Wise, Master of Ceremonies, introduced the remainder of the program, which consisted of remarks from the departing seminarians Basil Nichols, Joe Haffley, and Russ Wise. Piano selections were also heard from Jim Moscatello and Ed Dubriski. The evening ended with all singing Auld Lang Syne.

Mr. Garrett emphasized special note number two. All students who have already filled out the SSS 109 form at the beginning of the year and all students who are now liable to Selective Service must fill out the form.

Alumni Plan Annual Dance

The Connecticut Valley Alumni Chapter is sponsoring its second annual dance on the sixteenth of June at Rovelli's on the Boston Road in Springfield. The price is three dollars per person and all students from the Springfield area are cordially invited.

Students wishing to participate as guides this September during Freshman Week may sign up in the Alumni office as soon as possible. Partiction in Freshman Week involves returning to the campus five days early. Guides will be chosen from list of volunteers.

Professor Daniel McDonald recently finished his term as president of the National Catholic Honor Society. His successor is Mr. George Malony of the Class of '52, a Burlington insurance man.

Attorney J. William OBrien is vice-president and Father Dupont will once again serve as secretary-treasurer.

Mr. Thomas Garrett, Registrar, is national president of the Society and professor Edward Murphy is the New England Regional president. Mr. Garrett and professor Murphy were accompanied by the Alpha Nu Society to a recent meeting held at Holy Cross on May 13.

13 Seniors To Receive Sweaters And Letters

In its first official duty, the new Student Council elected its officers for next year in a meeting held Tuesday evening. Senior Jack Eaton, a two-year veteran, received 18 of the 27 votes cast to win the position over Walter Bellcourt, the only opposing nominee.

The 13 Seniors who will be presented with the sweaters and letters are: in Baseball; Russ Gangi, Paul Palmer, Tom Sorrell, Frank Keane, Steve O'Brien and Ray Garland; in Tennis, Tom Schnurr; in Sailing, Marius Peladeau and Dan Murray, in Golf, Mike Latus, Jack Shea and Tom Donnellan; in Baksetball, Bill Leoffler (letter only).

The sweaters have been discribed by the Athletic office as Navy Blue with crew neck while the letters will be the Gold, block 'M' in chenille. Coach Jacobs will await the arrival of the letters, which have been ordered, before awarding the sweaters and letters to the Seniors.

JUNIORS COP INTERCLASS FIELD AND TRACK MEET

On May 8 the Junior Class added the Interclass Field and Track Meet to its collection of interclass victories. The third-year men took five out of a possible ten first places, four second, one third place and four fourths for a total of 15.25 points and first honors.

Leading the Juniors to victory was the versatile Billy Noonan who captured first place in the standing broad jump, third in the running broad Jump and ran in the 880 relay team which placed second to the Freshmen.

The Freshmen placed second in the meet with Joe Maloney collecting three of his classes 11.25 points. Joe placed second in the running broad jump, ran in the first place relay team and finished second in the hundred yard dash.

Dave Smith scored 2 points by winning the hundred yard dash for the third place Sophomore while Frank Keane led the Seniors with 2 ½ points by taking second place in the baseball throw and football punt and third in base circling. The records for the Field Events are as follows:

Knights Split With Panthers; Top Larries

Doc Jacobs Purple Knights exploded for three four run innings to swamp the Larries Tuesday afternoon at St. Michael's Stadium.

Jack Coffey and big John Yula let the Knights at the plate with three bingles each. All three of Coffeys hits were extra bases. He sandwiched a double between a pair of triples. Captain Russ Gangi added the other extra base-hit of the afternoon with a double in the second.

Pat Dowd started on the hill for the Knights but ran into stormy weather in the second inning. He was relieved by Bill Gorman who limited the Canton, N.Y. boys to three hits the rest of the way.

In the 2nd, 3rd and 4th the Knights dented the plate four times. In these three innings the Knights also had 11 safeties. From the 5th on in, they produced only one run and three hits. But the big innings proved more than enough, as Gorman set down the Larries rather easily. A sharp 4-6-3 doubleplay ended the game on a happy note.

St. Michael's College Purple Knights dropped a heartbreaking 3-2 decision to the Middlebury Panthers Monday afternoon after having won a wild and wooly 17-9 victory over the club a week before.

In the first of the two game home-and-home series, the Knights, behind lefthander Paul Murphy who yielded 11 hits, combined 9 hits, 11 walks and 3 Middlebury errors to score 17 runs. Leading going into the third inning by a score of 3-2 the Mikemen broke the game wide open as they scored 2 runs in that same inning, 6 in the 4th and 5 in the 5th.

KEANE LEADS WAY

1st baseman Frank Keane paced the Knights attack at the plate with two timely hits which drove in five runs. Cat-

The Campus Colonel

By MARIUS B. PELADEAU

Our special congrats to Ed Markey for the surprising job he has done in putting some sort of cheer into the college baseball picture. At the time we wrote this column of trash, the team's record stood at three wins and only one loss. The double win over the cadets of Norwich was especially gratifying. It actually was the best coordination of fine pitching and timely hitting that we have seen on the Hilltop in two years. This column will have gone to press by the time the Middlebury, St. Lawrence and the U.V.M. games will have been played, but we hope and pray...maybe we will even come up with the State Title...

More news from Middlebury...The Panther's graduating star center, Tom Hart, has received a letter from the St. Louis Hawks of the NBA, notifying him that they are interested in his services. Apparently, from what we hear, Hart is awaiting further word as to when he will go to the Hawk's tryout school···For baseball fans... read the article in the May issue of True magazine entitled "The Yankees Made a Bum Out of Me!" by Joe Page, the great Yankee relief pitcher of '47, '48 and '49. If anyone says that baseball isn't a business after reading this story, we'll eat our proverbial hat...The story by Page tells how the Yankee front office and especially Casy Stengel, as Page tells it, "Used me like a robot, day in and day out until they made sure my arm was worn out; then they let me go..." Page has some very bitter words for Stengel and Yankee pitching coach Jim Turner.

It so happens that we find ourselves at the end of the college year, which means the last issue of the "MICHAELMAN" and, to the joy of all (including myself), the end of yours truly as Sports Editor. We don't want to thank anyone in particular for fear of leaving out someone's name and thereby hurting an innocent bystander; rather we would like to thank each and all who helped us with the sports page during our tenure in office - 'nough said.

'By for now...and don't get burned to a crisp this summer...

MIDDLEBURY

cher Paul Palmer belted a long home run to left center to help the winners. On the Panther's side of the ledger shortstop Jim Wagner was their only bright spot. Wagner, known to Michaelmen for his fine backcourt play for the Middlebury basketball team, smashed a homer, triple and double, played a fine game in the field and finally came to the hill in the fifth to hold the Knights to one run for the rest of the game.

PITCHER'S DUEL

This past Monday down at Middlebury the second and final game of the series was played with Murphy and Gerry Lenz hooking up in a pitcher's duel. With the score tied 2-all in the ninth four consecutive bunts spelled ruination for the Knights.

KNIGHTS LEAD

St. Michael's jumped to a 2-0 lead in the fifth inning. Steve O'Brien started it off with a single to center and raced to third when Ray Garland reached on an error. Obie scored when Jack Coffey's ground ball was thrown away in an attempt to force Garland at second. Garland went to third on the play and scored on Bill Kuchar's fly to the outfield.

TIED UP

In the Middlebury seventh Tom Burr reached when his grounder was booted and took second on an error. Dick Thoman' infield grounder was thrown away scoring Burr. Gerry Lenz, Midd pitcher, then clouted a double sending Thomas across the plate with the tying run.

BUNTS, BUNTS, BUNTS!

Going into the ninth Murphy had yielded but five hits and Lenz seven. Thomas who had scored the tying run opened by beating out a bunt. Lenz sacrificed him to second and catcher Roger Tirone also bunted for a hit sending Thomas into third. Second baseman Bobby Ray stepped in and dropped a bunt down the third base line as Thomas broke for the plate and slid in with the winning tally.

HEARTBREAKER

It was a real heartbreaker for Paul Murphy who gave up eight hits three of which were bunts.

HUGHES WINS INTERCLASS SAILING; FROSH WIN MEET

Monday saw the last meeting of the college Sailing Team at which time elections were held for the coming fall and spring season. Ed Hughes was reelected as Co-Commodore. Paul Bostley, another member of the Class of '57, was elected to serve with Hughes as Co-Commodore.

Matt Nastasia was voted in as Vice-Commodore and Freshman Bill Hill was chosen as Rear-Commodore. John Haggerty will be the recording secretary for the year 1956-57. All other posts will be appointed in the fall. The elections were under the direction of retiring commodore Marius Peladeau.

Peladeau also congratulated the team on its fine showing during the past fall and spring. The most noteworthy announcement was the final standing of the team in the 1955-56 season. The team had 15 regattas in all, but four were cancelled because of bad weather leaving 11 meets in which a final standing was recorded.

In the 11 meets, the Knight Sailors took two first, six very gratifying second, two thirds and one fifth place. Commodore Peladeau commented that this wasone of the finest records of the team in recent years and indicated the fine work and extra time that all the members had been putting into the team.

Special note was made of the fact that the Freshmen team had an excellent record of winning the two meets in which they took part. Both Bill Hill, the new Rear Commodore, and Dale Currier showed great promise as skippers. They were responsible for the two wins that the the Frosh put together.

Ed Hughes won the interclass sailing sponsored by Father Duford and picked up 25 points for his class in the trophy race. Bill Hill was second and gave his Freshmen class 15 points, while Marius Peladeau was third thereby gathering 10 points for the Seniors and John Haggerty picked up 5 points for the Sophomores by his fourth place showing.

FROSH LEAD BASEBALL LOOP

With three games played in the interclass baseball league, the Freshmen lead the league with two wins and no defeats. The Seniors have split their two games and are in second spot with one win and one loss. The Sophomores and Juniors hold down third and last position with no wins and one loss. Father Stankiewicz has said that he will try and get in the full slate of games before exam time, but that the bad weather has held up play.

BASKETBALL HOLDS SPOTLIGHT IN SPORTS YEAR

By Jack Thompson

Basketball stole the spotlight on Campus for the school year of '55-'56 and deservedly so. A won and loss record of 17-4 marked the finest campaign for the Knights since the '50-'51 season. Acclaimed by one and all as the outstanding small college in New England, ranked third among the powers in the six state area, and winners of the Green Mountain Conference with an undefeated record in state play, Coach "Doc" Jacobs lads reign supreme on the Hilltop.

Jumping Bill Kuchar and old reliable Tom Lemanowicz led the Knights in all the scoring departments. The Kooch' was one shy of 400 in total points for a 19-point per game average. His best night came against Norwich with 30 points. Hustling Tom shattered a single game scoring record with a 41 point effort against St. Anselm's. This win spoiled St. Anselm's hopes for the top rung in small college basketball in New England. The final score 100-87 also marked the 4th time the Knights went over the century mark during the season.

Captain Bernie Cieplicki and Sophomore sensation Drew Denmead teamed up to give the Knights a backcourt duo that was unmatchable in New England. Both boys averaged in double numbers. Another double figure man was John Wegrzynski. Big John proved the difference in the final with Middlebury, as he put the proverbial blanket on the Panthers ace, Tom Hart. A strong bench led by Frank McCaffrey and graduating Bill Loeffler remedied Doc Jacobs' bench problems in fine fashion.

The remaining inter-collegiate sport on the Hilltop suffered greatly at the hands of Mother Nature. Dom Casavant's skiers finished high in the four events they were able to participate in. Captain Rog Rivard led the way with fine individual performances at every meet. Teammate Roger Chapdelaine had his finest season of the three he has put in with the Knights. Others prominent in the "schusbooming" sport were Frank Moriarty, Larry Austin, Jim Roach and Ray Flynn.

On the diamond the Knights had a 3-1 record at this writing. Chances for a State title are in the offing as a win over the Catamounts on Wednesday would give these two teams identical records in Green Mountain play. Tom Sorrell solved his win and loss problem by limiting the Cadets of Norwich to just three hits. Teammate Paul Ripchick tossed a 2-hit shutout to sweep the Cadets in an important doubleheader. Jack Coffey and Bill Kuchar are leading the hitters.

Russ Gangi was elected Captain, and was limited to only one position this year. Paul Murphy took the other win by going the route against the Panthers of Middlebury.

On the water end of the sports picture the Purple Knights sailors had two first, six seconds and two thirds. Co-Commodores Marius Peladeau and Ed Hughes led the sailors to their fine showing. A two firsts record for the Freshman team indicated the picture will be considerably brighter in '57.

Tennis and golf were hit the hardest by the late spring. Hopes ran high that Guy Cheng's racket wielders would better their 4-3 record of a year ago. However, their lack of work was painfully visible as they were shutout by both Middlebury and Vermont in the first two matches of the season. Captain Bill Weihs ends a four-year career on the Hilltop this year. Teammate Bill Chaisson, the only other veteran on the squad, will be back next year.

Golf had one match reported in at this writing. The drive and put boys had walloped Norwich 20-5. Weather conditions at the Burlington Country Club had forced postponements, and make-up dates conflicted with exams, so it's a long story. Jack Shea, Mike Latus and Donnellan, veteran campaigners on the links end their carcers this week at St. Michael's. Jack Crichton, another outstanding performer, will return to lead the golf squad next year.

A newcomer to the varsity family was added during the fall, as St. Michael's succumbed to the lure of the hills, and launched its first cross-country team. Ray Flynn and Bill Kuchar performed the pioneer work in establishing the sport. Although not competing in regulation meets, the Knights showed up well in two practice meets. Chances are the Knights will dominate the State in the fall of '56.

Interclass sports went into its second year of competition. The Class of '57 captured the Sailing, the football and basketball crowns. Two hard working Juniors, Bob Caprio and Ronnie Maestroberardino, coordinated the nervous energy of their classmates and gave their class a pair of lethal weapons unmatchable in Interclass play. Baseball at this level was still progressing as this issue went to press.

Nominee for the outstanding sports figure on campus this year without a question goes to Senior Tom O'Neill. This worthy contributed four years to the ungloried position of Manager to the baseball team, and then the basketball squad. His devotion to duty was an inspiration to everyone that came into contact with him. His knowledge of both sports was amazing.

According to the newly amended constitution, the new Council membership greatly differs from that of previous years. In addition to elected class representatives, all class officers now serve on the Council. A newly established Organization of Club Presidents also elects one-third of its members as voting representatives in the Council while other club heads have a voice if they desire to exercise this privilege.

Under this set up, the Organization of Club Presidents have representing them Tom Johnson, chairman, William Kruter, Paul Kane, Raymond Jacques and Dan McCarthy.

Duford Speaks On Prudence

The feast of St. Michael the Archangel was celebrated at SMC with a Solemn High Mass held in Austin Hall on Thursday, May 10. The sermon was delivered by Fr. Duford, S.S.E., who stressed the virtue of prudence as made manifest in Joseph of Nazareth.

LAUDS JOSEPH'S PRUDENCE

Pointing out the appropriateness of celebrating the feast of St. Joseph on May first, May being traditionally the month dedicated to the worker and Mary by the Pope. Fr. Duford went on to cite the tests of Joseph's prudence. He then pointed out how Joseph met them with his solid foundations of intellectual and moral maturity.

"Time is but a condition for experience and experience is but a condition for maturity of life. It is the intellectual power of prudence.. which is the catalyst that crystalizes experience into maturity. .....Prudence is the fruit of clear thinking combined with sound faith," he said.

It was in conclusion that Fr. Duford added that the advice to go to Joseph is most pertinent to us in our quest of fullness of life here and in the hereafter.
